Quarterfinal action in Vanderbilt KO

The team led by Jim Mahaffey (Mahaffey, Gunnar Hallberg, Fredrik Nystrom, Peter Bertheau, Zhao Jie and Fu Zhong) won their quarterfinal match against Barnet Shenkin's squad, 163-152. Shenkin's team was David Bakhshi, Bart Bramley and Nikolay Demirev.

Mahaffey enjoyed a 28-IMP lead at the half, but Shenkin came roaring back to lead by 1 IMP after three quarters. Mahaffey won the last set, however, 53-41 to make it to the semifinal round.

Ron Rubin led his team to victory in the remaining quarterfinal match-up, defeating Ralph Katz's squad 137-103. Rubin (Russ Ekeblad, Peter Weichsel, Marcin Lesniewski, Louk Verhees and Jan Jansma) built a significant halftime lead and did not look back.

Mahaffey will face Rubin in the semifinal.

The Meltzer squad continues to cruise. The original No. 7 seed captained by Rose Meltzer has won its Vanderbilt matches by an average of 85 IMPs. Yesterday, they dispatched the squad led by Winthrop Allegaert 153-125. Meltzer's lineup includes Kyle Larsen, Alan Sontag, Roger Bates, Tor Helness and Geir Helgemo. Allegaert played with Judith Bianco, Justin Lall, Kevin Bathurst, Jaggy Shivdasani and Lapt Chan.

Team Poland led by captain Krzysztof Martens continued their winning ways by taking out John Onstott's team 122-87. The Poles led all four quarters of the contest. Their roster includes Martens, Krzysztof Jassem, Boguslaw Gierulski and Jerzy Skrzypczak.

Meltzer takes on Team Poland in the other semifinal bracket.

Cappelletti achieves Grand Life Master

Shannon Cappelletti of Hollywood FL has advanced to Grand Life Master, a rank requiring a win in an unrestricted NABC event and more than 10,000 masterpoints.

Cappelletti, a full-time player, won the Mixed Pairs in 1999. She played on the Junior team in the Nineties and has served as their coach. She says one-on-one teaching is her favorite part of bridge. "I'm the luckiest person I know," she said. "I get to do what I want with people I like."

Memories of Detroit

By Chuck Said

Part 2 in a series. Expert Chuck Said shares stories of his early bridge education in Michigan.

And then came Zeke

While playing bridge in Ann Arbor in the late Sixties, I had heard a great deal about Zeke Jabbour. He was a legend: Everyone spoke of how great a player he was, even though he had been absent from the scene for years. But slowly he returned to playing once in a while at Brooks Hughes's club.

I got to know Zeke a little, and he was always cordial and polite. In those days, he was mostly involved in political activities as well as directing plays for the local theater. (I saw a play he directed titled Romanoff and Juliet and enjoyed it immensely.) Zeke also ran a construction business. At the time, I was jobless and in dire need of funds to pay my school tuition and living expenses — though I was always sure to have enough to pay card fees!

Needing a job badly, I got up enough courage to go to Zeke's office. After all, I was from Iraq and he was Lebanese. We were both Arabs, and I hoped he has some position for me. He greeted me nicely, but as we conversed I became aware that business was slow and Zeke was struggling to keep the company afloat. He assured me that he would think of me if a position became open. He regretted that he couldn't help immediately, but promised that he would be in touch. I didn't get the job, but I left his office with a few bridge tips.

Later in years we became close friends. We played on teams together, and we won a couple of championships including one I put together in which I invited Zeke to play with me, Russ Arnold, Dan Morse and John Sutherlin. Later, Zeke returned the favor and invited me to play on his team with Tommy Sanders, and we won that event as well. Zeke and I both won our first NABC together. the 1994 Senior Knockouts, and became Grand Life Masters at the same time.

Zeke and I have many things in common. We lived

Lynn Baker of Austin TX and Karen McCallum are third with 749.50.

In the qualifying round, there were 70 pairs. Forty will play in today's two-session final.

See page 10 for the complete list of qualifiers.

Red Ribbon Pairs: Develin, Chen in front

With a huge 69.72% game in the second qualifying session, Mike Develin of Berkeley CA and Li-Chung Chen of Cupertino CA jumped into the lead in the Bean Red Ribbon Pairs.

Develin and Chen scored 56.85% in the first session, and finished the day with a score of 822.26 (top was 25).

In second with 804.50 are Jingsong Liu of Kirkland WA and Brian Zaugg of Burien WA.

Total number of pairs who entered the event: 176. Total number of pairs that qualified for the final: 88.

E-ban takes effect at Summer NABC

Players are reminded that a new ban on electronic devices goes into effect for all nationally rated events at the 2008 Summer NABC. The new policy reads as follows:

Electronic devices, excluding health-related equipment, capable of sending or receiving communication, including but not limited to, headphones, earphones, cellular phones and mini-computers: (1) shall not be allowed in the playing areas, adjacent hallways, restrooms or accessible break areas; and (2) shall not be used during a session.

These restrictions shall apply to all pairs, team members, captains, coaches, recorders and kibitzers and shall apply throughout any actual playing session or segment.

A violation of this policy shall result in a disciplinary penalty of one full board (or 12 IMPs at that form of scoring) for the first offense. A second offense shall result in disqualification from the event for the pair/team.

Kibitzers violating this policy shall be removed from the playing area for the remainder of the session.

These devices are not permitted near the playing area, even if they are turned off.

Entertainment at the Detroit NABC

Detroit is home to one of the world's most justly famous music scenes, and the staff of the Compuware Spring 2008 has lined up a sampling of some of the outstanding musical talent that the Detroit area has to offer.

All performances will be held in the Mackinac Ballroom on Level 5 and will begin shortly after the end of the evening session. These artists have been carefully chosen to make the 2008 Detroit NABC especially enjoyable and memorable for you. You will not want to miss these exciting acts.

Friday, March 14: Gia Warner is one of those artists you have undoubtedly heard but rarely heard of. She has performed in film scores for composers Angelo Badalamente and Joseph LoDuca, for television as the singer of theme songs and other music, and in commercials for such clients as NBC, Chiquita and Cadillac. With a control of voice and style that is exceptional, Gia will be performing a mix of standards and originals at the Detroit NABC accompanied by guitarist and father, Bobby Lewis, himself a legendary studio musician and a former Motown artist. Her recently released debut album, "Gia," is starting to gain her the wider recognition she deserves. On stage, Gia is a refreshing and engaging personality.

The least expensive parking during the week is at the GM Lot along the river. This is a very large surface lot near the Marriott. It costs only $3 per day. On weekdays, you will not find a less expensive place to park.

Both of these parking facilities are located east of the RenCen.

JUST FOR NEW PLAYERS

More than 4-3-2-1

By Lynn Berg

Until Milton Work suggested the 4-3-2-1 point count we all find so useful, quick trick count was the usual method for hand evaluation. Work died in 1934, but his count was adopted and popularized by the giant of mid-20th Century bridge, Charles Goren.

The Work count, as it was called for a long time, was simple and easy to remember. It gave value to unsupported queens and to jacks, which were largely ignored with the earlier quick trick method.

If we rely only on those 40 high-card points in evaluating hands, we ignore common sense. In the first place, length clearly is also important in developing tricks.

Dummy
♣9 7 6 5

You
♣8 4 3 2

Even if you are missing all five honors, this suit will often produce a trick. All it takes is for you to realize that the outstanding cards are likely to be divided 3-2. You just lead the suit until your last two cards in the suit are good. If you wonder why someone else makes more tricks in notrump than you do, it's likely that the potential of suits like this is recognized by them.

It's easy to argue, too, that aces are somewhat undervalued at only four points. Why? Think about it. If you have a king or queen, you might not be able to win the trick. An opponent might have a higher card.

If you have the ace, you have control. Unless the ace is singleton, you can win the trick when you want to — gaining the advantage of playing next.

Spot card 10s are given no numeric value in the 4-3-2-1 count, but their value should not be underestimated.

Thinking about raising 1NT to 2NT? Use "Eight over Eight" if you aren't sure. You should have eight cards of 8 or higher. Mere high-card points sometimes are not enough. Good spots will help you to more tricks.

The modern approach to point count tends to use HCP and length for hand evaluation before a fit has been discovered. It can be scary to open a hand because it has shortness, only to have partner insist on your short suit. A short suit, for instance, is not really an asset when you are playing in an eight-card fit where you have five and dummy has three:

♠K J 9 7 2 ♥6 ♦A Q 8 7 ♣K 6 5

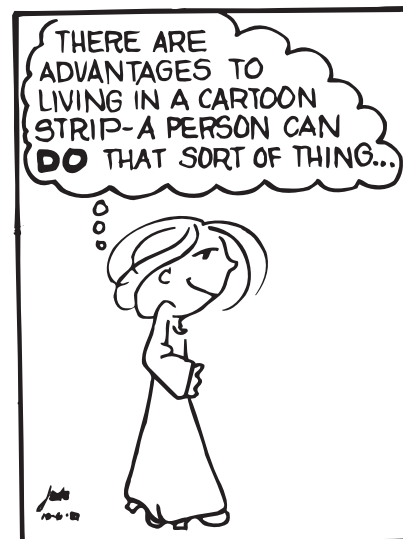

You're playing spades after the ♥A opening lead. Dummy comes down with four low hearts. Each time the opponents gain the lead, they'll lead hearts. And then, to ice the cake, trumps split 4-1. You've ruffed two hearts and now have a 3-3 spade fit, while one of the opponents has longer trumps than you do.

Shortness in dummy, however, can be a huge asset. Consider this hand:

♠Q 10 5 ♥6 ♦K J 8 7 ♣Q 6 5 4 2.

It has only 8 HCP, but when playing in a spade contract, the singleton heart is useful — you can use dummy's trumps to ruff. One of the best questions you can ask yourself as declarer is, "Is there anything I should do before I draw trump?" There's a fairly large book entitled, The Drawing of Trumps and Its Postponement.

Using dummy count evaluation also works wonderfully if you are considering a takeout double. A big part of your message with the typical takeout double is that you are short in the opener's suit but can support any of the others. Consider:

♠K 7 5 4 ♥A 7 3 2 ♦6 ♣Q J 9 8.

Most of us would not open this hand, but it's certainly worth a double if your right-hand opponent opens 1♦. That singleton isn't just worth two points, but three, and it's second-round control just like a king. Count a void for five — even more than an ace. Why? Because you can win the trick or not as you please.

West	North	East	South
		Pass	Pass
Pass	1♦	Pass	1♥
Pass	3♥	All Pass

Opening lead: ♠J.

Bidding commentary: Responder should not think twice about responding 1♥ or 1♠ to an opening bid with 5 high-card points and a five-card major. Do it! However, after the 1♥ response, South shouldn't give any real thought to bidding 4♥. The North hand counts to 17 support points (forget the ♣J). North has 15 HCP plus one support point for each doubleton. The jump raise promises 16-18 support points, so North is on target. East, a passed hand, has a perfect takeout double if North opens 1♥, but he can't come in intelligently over the 1♦ bid. A double is out of the question with a singleton in an unbid major, and overcalling on a crummy four-card suit is also off the wall.

Defensive commentary: After East cashes two spades, he shifts to a low club rather than the ace. After all, declarer may have the king and misguess by playing low, thus losing two club tricks. As it happens, West has the king and returns the ♣3 (original fourth best showing four clubs) to East, who gets out with a club to South's queen. South must have the queen as West won trick three with ♠K, denying the queen. Defenders take tricks with the lower or lowest equal.

Play commentary: South has to find the ♥Q holding nine trumps between the two hands. We've come too far to play by nursery rhymes. East, a passed hand, has turned up with the ♠A Q plus the ♣A for a total of 10 HCP. Most players open 12-point hands these days, so it is odds on that West has the ♥Q. South does best to cash the ♥K and lead a heart to the jack.

Special guests

There were 26 special guests playing yesterday. Why were they special? Each had 0—20 masterpoints. Most of the group were playing in their first tournament.

Classes began last May at the Bridge Connection in Southfield MI, where Linda Golumbia is teacher and part-owner. They have been preparing for the trip since then. "They came with the expectation of a great experience," said Golumbia. "We did a lot of prep," she said. "We covered what they should expect, including basics such as how to fill out the convention card."

The players meet each Thursday. At the beginning, Golumbia gives a 30 minute lecture with handouts. Mostly the basics are covered. "Nothing fancy," she said. Then the students play an 18-board duplicate game. Afterwards, Golumbia stays and answers questions or discusses problem hands.

"The students are wonderful," added Golumbia. "They are a terrific group, and so much fun to work with. Their enthusiasm is amazing."

Golumbia doesn't use a specific curriculum for her lessons. "At first, I didn't know what I was going to do, so basically, I just winged it," she said. "My children are grown, so I have the time and determination to make this happen."

The players had mixed reactions.

"I was nervous," said Raj Patil of Bloomfield Hills MI. "Who wouldn't be?"

"I was excited, but I wasn't nervous," said Sue

Meneilley.

"I'm drained but I survived!" exclaimed Jeanne Kabeck of Farmington Hills MI. "Don't get me wrong. The people were lovely; it was me," she explained.

Newcomers from the local bridge club played yesterday. The organizer was Linda Golumbia (front row on the far right).

Memories

in the same city, we both come from Arab descent, we both like to eat and we love to play bridge. We both married late in life to two of the most popular and well-liked women in the bridge world: his lovely and endearing Sharon, and my beautiful and compassionate Elaine. Without a doubt, they were the best things that ever happened to us.

Lost: Cell phone

Glenn Peters reported a lost cell phone to the Daily Bulletin office. Peters had his cell phone in a red registration bag that he kept at his table in the Ontario West Ballroom on March 12 (Wednesday) in the 7:30 p.m. session. Peters believes someone picked up the wrong bag with his cell phone, a Verizon model with phone number 313-580-3207.

The home number for Peters is 313-884-3479 (which may be found in his cell phone address book under the listing "ICE.")

"Retract, or I'll sue!"

An irritated Howard Weinstein came into the Daily Bulletin office on Monday, the same day that his name appeared in a front-page story in our modest publication. The piece, by former local hot-shot Zeke Jabbour, incorrectly included Weinstein in a list of famous Michigan players. Mr. Weinstein objected, primarily due to the fact that, prior to this year's NABC in Detroit, he has never set foot in the state.

"I've lived in the Chicago area and Florida, and I went to school in Minnesota, but I've never been to Michigan. Never. Not once. I deny it. The Daily Bulletin piece linking my name to the state of Michigan is damaging not only to me, but also to my reputation. Retract it forthwith, or I'll sue," said Weinstein, through his attorneys.

So just to be clear, dear readers, Howard Weinstein is not, repeat NOT, from Michigan.

In tomorrow's issue: Howard Weinstein, the Whiz Kid of Lansing!

TOURNAMENT APPEALS

In order to keep the bridge public informed of appeals results in a timely fashion, the NABC Daily Bulletin staff publishes write-ups. Every effort is made to ensure that these reports are accurate and complete. However, before they are published in the NABC Appeals Casebook revisions may be made.

APPEAL CASE 4

Subject: Claim
Event: Rockwell Mixed Pairs
Session: First Qualifying

Board: 17 ♠ 10 4
Vul: None ♥ —
Dir: North ♦ K Q 8 3
♣ A K Q 7 6 5 4

Judy Nassar ♠ A Q J 7 ♥ J 10 7 3 ♦ A J 5 4 ♣ 9
Richard Ekstrum ♠ K 9 6 2 ♥ K 6 5 ♦ 10 9 7 ♣ J 3 2

Cam Doner
♠ 8 5 3
♥ A Q 9 8 4 2
♦ 6 2
♣ 10 8

West	North	East	South
	1♣	Pass	1♥
Dbl	3♣	3♠	Pass
Pass	4♣	Pass	Pass
4♠	5♣	All Pass

The Facts: The director was called after trick 10.

The play had proceeded as follows:

1. ♠2	♠3	♠A	♠4
2. ♦4	♦K	♦7	♦2
3. ♦3	♦9	♦6	♦J
4. ♣9	♣A	♣2	♣8
5. ♦8	♦10	♣10	♦5
6. ♥A	♥3	♠10	♥5
7. ♥2	♥7	♣4	♥6

Declarer then played three rounds of clubs. North was left with two clubs and the ♦Q, West held the ♠Q J and the ♦A, while East held the ♠K 9 and the ♥K. Dummy came down to the ♠8 5 and the ♥Q.

At this point East stated that he would hold the ♠K. West then stated that she would hold the ♦A.

The Ruling: The table director applied Law 57 (Premature Play) ruling that West, in effect, lost the ♦A. Directorial review determined that the appropriate law was 68A (Claim Defined) as this was determined to be a claim, not a premature play. In accordance with Law 70 (Contested Claim), it was determined that in light of the auction and play up to the point of the claim it would be irrational for East to discard the ♦A. Therefore, the result of 5♣ by North down one, North-South minus 50, was instated.

The Appeal: South claimed to have seen some or all of East's cards when he made his statement about the spade king. South wanted the committee to consider a procedural penalty (PP) against East-West.

When asked, South refused to quantify the likelihood that East would have kept a heart not a spade for trick 13 or that West would pitch the ♦A prior to trick 13.

Neither North nor West saw East's cards. West knew East had four spades from the auction so would never keep a second high spade to discard the ♦A.

The Decision: The committee agreed with the director's corrected ruling. Law 57 was not on point. East's statement was tantamount to a claim. The committee judged that East would keep the ♠K in the one-card ending, both because she had seen North pitch on the ♥A and ruff a heart and because she said that she would keep it in her claim statement. West would then retain the ♦A as her 13th card both because she knew from East's 3♠ bid and the play so far that North held no more spades and because the ♠Q was not a winner. The committee upheld the final director decision of 5♣ by North down one, North-South minus 50.

The committee considered a PP and determined that East's actions were possibly unfortunate but certainly understandable – a PP was not warranted.

The only conceivable reason for not awarding an appeal without merit warning (AWMP) was the initial incorrect ruling. Two members of the committee felt the incorrect ruling was enough reason not to award an AWMW. While the other three members disapproved strongly with this view, the committee decided not to award an AWMW.

Welcome to Detroit, mister!

Larry Cohen, back at the NABC after a family bereavement, played the he-man here.

Playing against Niel Waletzky and Phil Becker, Cohen first of all overcalled, then found the psychic double of 3NT.

This was not the right moment for this action. The opponents turned the cube, and collected 800. David and Larry staggered away from the table, holding their respective foreheads, to hear one opponent mutter to the other, "Next time, don't try and mess with us."

On the receiving end

By Barry Rigal

Although I was on the wrong end of this, I thought Michael Yuen and Angela Fenton did very well here.

You could say the 1♠ bid deserved a fate worse than it got. But given that 3♣ is an easy 150, the defenders needed the third undertrick to get back to par.

Here's how the defense went. The ♦Q was led and ducked all around. Another diamond was led to the ♦K. Yuen made a very thoughtful shift to the ♥8 to the ♥J and ♥Q. The ♥A was led, East playing the ♥9. Then Fenton played a club to the ♣K for the ♦A and a fourth diamond. Declarer ruffed high as Fenton pitched both her hearts. Now declarer had to guess spades, with no reentry to hand.

Not surprisingly, he led low to the ♠8, since the trumps were known to be 3-1. This resulted in down 150 — mission accomplished.

Oh, so close

By Barry Regal

In the round of 64 in the Vanderbilt KO Teams, declarer was nearly able to pull off a rare play.

♠ A
♥ A J 8 4

3♠	3NT
Pass

Mehmet Ozdil declared 3NT on the unhelpful ♠9 lead. He won the ♠A, played the ♣A dropping an ominous ♣Q on his left. He then continued with the ♣K, and the ♣8. West pitched a low spade and then a low diamond, so East played the ♥6 to the ♥4, the ♥9, and . . . Ozdil ducked!

This was the full deal:

♠ Q J 8 7 4 2
♥ K 7 3
♦ 10 5 4

♠ 9 6 3	♠ K 10 5
♥ Q 10 9 5	♥ 6 2

♣ Q	♣ 10 9 8 5 4 3

♥ A J 8 4
♦ A Q
♣ A K J 8 7 6

West, Craig Gower, actually played back a diamond, so declarer had nine tricks.

A heart return is more fun: Declarer wins in hand and clears the clubs. When East wins and returns a diamond, declarer flies with the ♦A, and reaches this position:

♠ Q J
♥ K
♦ 10

♠ 6	♠ K 10
♥ Q 5	♥ —
♦ K	♦ J 7
♣ —	♣ —

♥ A 8

On the ♣6, West is caught in a stepping stone squeeze, and must pitch a spade. Declarer goes to the ♥K to exit with a diamond, and collects the ♥A at trick 13.

Monitoring

At this and future North American championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real-time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants' behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.

Steve and Kerri Sanborn were second in the Rockwell Mixed Pairs.

Entry fees

Players must be ACBL members whose service fees or dues are current in order to compete in any of the following nationally ranked events: Baldwin

North American Pairs (Flight A), Silodor Open Pairs, Vanderbilt Knockout Teams, Leventritt Silver Ribbon Pairs, Rockwell Mixed Pairs, Lebhar IMP Pairs, Whitehead Women's Pairs, Jacoby Open Swiss Teams, and the Machlin Women's Swiss Teams. The entry fees for these contests are $18 per player per session.

Players must also be current ACBL members to play in the Bean Red Ribbon Pairs, the Golder North American Pairs (Flight B) and the President's Cup North American Pairs (Flight C). The entry fee is $16.50 per player per session.

Regional championships are $15.50 per player per session for ACBL members, $17.50 for nonmembers.

All other events are $14.50 per player per session for ACBL members, $16.50 for nonmembers.

No calls, please

Cell phones, audible pagers or any similar communication equipment may not be operated or operable in the playing area during a session of play at NABCs except for health-related equipment or by permission of the director-in-charge of the tournament or event.

Today's Sponsorships and Memorials

The Michigan Bridge Association (Unit 137) represents more than 900 players primarily in Wayne, Washtenaw, Monroe and Livingston counties, including the cities of Detroit and Ann Arbor. It is one of five units in District 12.

Each year, the MBA runs one sectional in Ann Arbor and three in suburban Detroit. In October, the MBA holds the Vincent O. Remy Motor City Regional. Remy, who passed away in 1988, was District 12's ACBL board member for many years. He was also editor of MBA's renowned publication, Table Talk, which is now in its 49th year. Marty Hirschman has been the editor for the past 20 years. The MBA presents an annual Goodwill Award. The most recent recipient is Ron Horwitz who, along with Bill and Sandy Arlinghaus, is a co-chair of the Detroit NABC.

Before moving to Florida, popular Bridge Bulletin columnist Zeke Jabbour was a longtime member of MBA, as was 2007 Blue Ribbon Pairs champion Steve Landen, who now resides in Maryland. Well-known current MBA members include many-time national champion Chuck Burger and Bridge Bulletin columnist Mary Smith. MBA members also include two of the past four youngest Life Masters, Sam and Dan Hirschman. Dr. Leonard "Bill" Melander Jr., who reportedly became the oldest player to win an NABC championship when he was on the victorious North American Swiss team in San Francisco last November, is a life-long MBA member.

Premier Self Storage is located on Lapeer Road (M24) just north of The Palace of auburn Hills. We have 421 units and feature a 5,000 square-foot heated complete drive-through loading dock.

Additional features include climate control, interior and exterior units, 24-hour digital key pad access and state-of-the-art digital surveillance. Owner, Steven Jacob, is a devoted bridge player. Please phone Dan Boorstein (248-276-9200) for the special ACBL member discount.

Jacob Properties is the region's premier industrial and warehouse developer. Our first-class buildings and industrial parks are located throughout the metropolitan Detroit and Tampa Bay areas. Our tenants and customers range in size from 1,200 to 70,000 square feet. President, Steven Jacob, is a devoted duplicate bridge player.

Sylvia Stein was a Diamond Life Master who represented the U.S. in numerous international competitions. She won several national titles and more than 70 regional events. She was known for her uncanny ability to sniff out a missing queen. Coincidentally, her initial claim to fame came when she won the Life Master Individual event at the 1958 Nationals held right here in Detroit. For many years she ran a local bridge club in the Detroit area.

Western Michigan Unit 195 is comprised of 36 clubs running 48 games weekly, so wherever you visit in Western Michigan, a friendly club is waiting to welcome you. The people of Unit 195 also come together to sponsor eight Sectional tournaments, two Non-Life Master Sectionals and one Regional tournament each year. From our major cities of Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Lansing and Jackson, to our lovely Lake Michigan Shore cities of Grand Haven, Traverse City, Petoskey and St. Joseph, we provide our players with myriad opportunities to enjoy this wonderful game. Unit 195 card fees of only $8 per session for our Sectionals are very reasonable, and our beautiful cities are attractions in themselves. We are pleased to help support the Detroit NABC and hope that you will consider joining us at any of our clubs or tournaments. To find a Unit 195 club or information about our tournaments please visit the District 12 website at www.district12bridge.org.

Beverly Bluth was the winner of numerous regional events, a top competitor at national championships and holder of almost 5,000 masterpoints. She served with distinction for many years on the Boards of Directors on the New Jersey Bridge League and the Michigan Bridge Association, where she received its Goodwill Award. Beverly competed successfully and respectfully with a smile and a good word for all.

Advance Capital Management is the sponsor of the Schedule and Restaurant Guide found in your registration packet. It is a Michigan-based investment advisory firm that specializes in retirement planning and manages their own family of no-load mutual funds. CEO Bob Cappelli is an ACBL member who, like many of our members, took time off from bridge to grow his business. Bob is the co-chair of the Information Committee for our NABC and when reading the job description that said, "the information chair must know everything" was ingloriously told by his wife that "you finally found a job that matches what you have been telling me for thirty years!"
