North American Swiss Team victors: Larry Cohen, Billy Eisenberg, Richard Coren and Drew Casen.

Coren strong in NA Swiss final

The team of Richard Coren, Billy Eisenberg, Larry Cohen and Drew Casen put on a show of strength in the finals of the North American Swiss Teams, securing victory in the event with one round left to play. Coren finished with a score of 140.91 VPs.

In second was the team captained by Lenny Ernst. Ernst, playing with Richard Halperin, Colin Revill, Paul Erb and George Pisk, posted a final tally of 124.89. Ernst and Coren were neck-and-neck in the two-session final of the event until their meeting in the fourth round, which Coren won decisively. Coren pulled away from the rest of the field after the match, and Ernst kept good form by not allowing the defeat to sidetrack them in the remainder of the final.

In third with 123.68 was the squad of David Siebert, John Onstott, Harvey Brody and Doug Dang.

Campbell played in all 39 sessions

What a remarkable achievement! Scott Campbell of Sun City CA played in all 39 sessions of this tournament. He played in four sessions every day except yesterday, when there were only three sessions. That means he was up early in the morning for the morning sessions and up very late at night for the midnight events.

But that's not all. He also worked at the Partnership Desk for 20 sessions. Apparently he never gets tired.

Reisinger victory goes to Welland

An extremely close Reisinger final, complicated by an appeal involving the two highest-scoring teams in the event, saw the squad of Roy Welland, Bjorn Fallenius, Howard Weinstein, Steve Garner, Brad Moss and Fred Gitelman finish in the winners' circle. The final official score for the Welland team was 31.65. This was the first NABC win for captain Welland, whose best previous finish was second in the Spingold Knockouts in Anaheim (2000).

Finishing second was the team of George Jacobs, Ralph Katz, Alfredo Versace, Norberto Bocchi, Giorgio Duboin and Lorenzo Lauria who finished with 31.19. The Jacobs squad was the high scorer at the end of play, but an appeal filed earlier in the second final session held the official result in limbo until the appeal could be ruled upon. The appellant in the case was the Welland team, the defendant Jacobs. The Welland team won the appeal, moving them into first while Jacobs dropped to second.

In third was the team led by Rose Meltzer (Kyle Larsen, Peter Weichsel, Alan Sontag, Lew Stansby and Chip Martel) with 31.00, while Rita Shugart's squad (Andrew Robson, Tony Forrester and Boye Brogeland) was fourth with 30.85.

ACBL interim CEO Wayne Hascall, third from right, presents the Curt Reisinger Trophy to Bjorn Fallenius, Brad Moss, Fred Gitelman, Roy Welland, Howard Weinstein and Steve Garner.

They finished second in the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams after an appeal was decided against them. Left to right: Norberto Bocchi, Ralph Katz, Alfredo Versace, George Jacobs, Giorgio Duboin and Lorenzo Lauria. It was a tough week for this team - earlier they lost the Open Board-a-Match Teams by .01 of a point, the smallest possible margin.

Many thanks to tournament co-chairman Deborah Branaugh, left, and Mary Ellen O'Brien for a fine record-breaking tournament.
